Trial of the Challenge Safe.

BYC, the undersigned, citizens of this City, heving acted as a Committee on the trial of one of the Challenge Safe manifestured by Bornbach A'wager, of this city, yeared as afternoon, certify by this, that said Safe wan plead on four small bricklayers, wenry inches from the ground, surrounded by a devolar wail about three feet distant from the Safe, and reaching forer than a foot above it, and covered from all sides as well as from top and bottom by wood, thus filling the whole space between the Bafe, and the wall and some way upwards, with just four cords of wood. We having inspected the books, papers and book bills that were placed in the Safe, fire was set to the pile of wood, and owing to a instanticy of impentine which had been poured on the wood-pile, the whole was in a short time all in a blace. The fames then continued raging for an horn and a half account, above and below the Safe, melting off a folid thres sheby of an inch and seven-eighths in thickness, and bringing the Safe to a red-lich feet, when we, the Committee, considering this a fully satisfactory trial, und-one that a safe is unitally subjected to in one of conflavrations, concluded to let an engine play on it. This was quickly brought in as extinguished, to rands of water helps directed; tagetage extinguished, to rands of water helps directed; tagetage extinguished, to rands of water helps directed; tagetage extinguished, to a fact, of water helps directed; tagetage extinguished, to a fact, of water helps directed; tagetage extinguished, to a fact, of water helps directed; tagetage extinguished, to a fact, of water helps directed; tagetage extinguished, to a fact, and the store of water helps directed; tagetage extinguished, to a fact, and the store of the water helps directed; the safe is unital more presented to the safe of the milighty damned by the stem or research, the articular, were found uninjured by fire, and united safe was experited inside, including $15 in hand notes helps Trial of the Challenge Safe.

RUFUS KING & WM. H. WATSON, PROPRIETORS, Under the Name and Firm of Rufus King & Co.

MILWAUKEE: Wednesday Morning, April 9.

NEWS OF THE MORNING. Connecticer, like New Hampshire and Rhod Island, has pronounced its verdict against Pierce and Nebraska. St. Louis, at its charter election yesterday, repudiated Know-Norhingism and Border Ruffian " Democracy. Two conflicting phases of the Stavery question are noticed in the telegraphic reports. In the one case, a vessel is condemned at New York, on suspicion of being fitted out to make slaves of freemen. In the other, a vessel is seized and her crew imprisoned at Baltimore, on suspicion of making freemen of slaves. Even a Philadelphia lawyer must be puzzeled to tell why both acts should be punishable as arimes under the laws of the United States.

We hear a report that France and England will take part with Costa Rica against Walker and his Fillbusters. It is probably muno news.

Tho Mississippi River is open as far up as Dunkirk, and doubtless above. The first boat from below arrived at Galena, Saturday, and a number of steamers were announced to start for the Upper; as well as the Lower Mississippi, yesterday. The New York Market continues to droop under the adverse foreign news, and the prevalent belief that with Peace will come low prices. wher is called the beathen age.

The K. N. State Council assembled in this cit last evening, but as they sat with closed doors "the (dark) lanterns dimly burning," we could not learn what transpired. The gathering seemed to be a small one.

'It will be seen that Seantor Seward has obtained the floor on the Kansas question, and will probably deliver to-day one of the great speeches

Breaking Ground for Buchanan. The Madison Argus, which assumes to regulate the "democracy" of this Stare, gives notice, in its issue of Monday, that the party in Wisconsin has formed a decided preference among the different Presidential aspirant and proceeds to tell who it is. Not, Mr. Pierce-whom the organ coolly dismisses in this wise:

Some of the Democrats of the State are vor of the re-nomination of Gen. Pirack. This portion, however, constitutes the smallest minorportion, however, constitutes the smallest minority of the party. It does not consist of those who imagine that he has any strength of his own to either unite the party or carry the State.

Not Mr. Douglas, who is patted on the shoulder and promised Sugar-plums, if he will wait a while -but Mr. Buchasan, that respectable Pennsylvania Federalist, of whom the Argus says:

No, the eyes of all the Democrats of this State, are turned to a veteran statesman and pariot of Penn.—James Buchanan. He has not for years mingled in the turmoil of politics

Forty thousand Wisconsin democrats are awaiting the anouncement of his nomination to join in the labor that will secure his triumph.— I take delegates from Wisconsin fulfil their duty to the party and the State, all other preferences will be forgotten in the support of him

PIERCE and DougLas, unquestioned "democrats," whistle down the wind for an "old Feder " The in gratitude of party!

TRIAL OF THE RAIL ROAD OBSTRUCTORS .- John and James Davolt, who have been once tried at the Dane Co. Circuit Court for placing obstructions upon the track of the Milwankee & Miss'ssippi Rull Road, the jury not agreeing, will be tried again next week, the trial being set down for next Tuesday. A. R. R. Butler, Esq. of this City, H. S. Orton, of Modison, and the District dant, EDWIN WHILELER and THOS. P. RUSSELI receiving 324 votes for that office.

The Kenosha Election.—The Kenosha Demcrat says that there is no truth whatever in the statement that the issue at the late election in that city was Railroad or Anti-Railroad. Its langange is:

Never was there a time when there was mor union upon the Railroad than now. There is but one feeling, and that feeling is of universal flendship toward the enterprise—but one wish, and that is that the road may be "speedily built The Railroad was in no wise drawn into the political arena, to be made an issue. Messrs. Sholes & Hughes are both staunch Railroad men, and differed only in their political views.

ANTI-RAILROAD MEETING .- A meeting was hold in Germantown, Washington County, on the Last town meeting day, at which Senator Weil and will be changed on the subject. Assemblyman Hayes were consured for favoring the passage of the law authorizing certain towns to aid a railroad project by issue of bonds. The railroad is the "Air Line" hence to Fond du Lac. we believe. A spirit of strong opposition to the act was manifested-on what grounds w have not tearned.

Madison Council.-The Commo Council of the new city of Madison held their first meeting on Monday last, "Squire Sermote" was elected Clerk; D. R. Corr, Attorney; P. McCare, Surveyor. The Inaugural of Mayor temple of Ceres and Cellus the temple of Escul-Faircuito fills two columns of the Argus, and is a sensible, practical document.

The Republican State Convention of Itlinois to choose delegates to the National Convection, is called for the 29th of May next, at Bloomington.

DANISH SOUND DUES .- The U.S. Government has prolonged for two months, the time during which dues will be paid to the Danish authorties by American vessels passing the Sound, in the hope that amicable arrangements will be made by that time.

ENGINES FOR AUSTRIA. -At the Morgan Iron We:ks, M. Y., are being built two large steam engines for steamboats to ply on the Danube. They are to be completed and shipped next month,

KANSAS CONTISSION .- Messrs. Howard and Sherman, of the Congressional Committee to investigate the election frauds, &c., in Kansas, were at Chicago day before yesterday, on their way to

We notice that Mr. Brillinghung, M. C., from this State, takes Mr. Howand's place on the Committee of Ways and Means, one of the most important in the State.

THE MISSISSIPPI OPEN.—The steamboat A/hambra was advertised to leave Galena for up the ing any of it away and have stationed a few of tiver on Saturday last, and the War Lage on the remaining soldiers of the old Grock revolution

The Galena Company will run two daily lines this year, feaving each morning and evening for St. Paul, with nine boats. They will also run a showing like the Coliseum of Rome its gigantic daily line to Rock Island.

BURGLARY IN FOND BU LAC.—The auction that once formed the noble portico. They are no store of Newton & Bowen, in the city of Fond du the Corinthian order, upwards of six feet in di-Loc was broken open on Sunday, and a revolver, ameter and nearly cixty feet in height. This $15 in money, and several small articles stolen. No clue as yet has been obtained to the thiever.

Republicans in Kantucky.—The Republicans of Kentucky were to hold a State Convention on Monday last, to appoint delegates to the Philadelphia Convention of the 17th of June.

The Modern City-Climate and Sunsets-An the Modern City Climate and Sunsets—Alveient Ruins—The Acropolis—The Parthenon —Temple of Minerna—Temples of Jupiler and Theseus—Other Temples and Statuary—St
Paul on the hill of Mar. CONCLUDED.

This small space of ground was covered with other public buildings, whose architects were the greatest artists of that or any other age. All were adorned with statuary, executed by the same nasters, at an age when the fine arts were at the highest point of attainment. These works through all ages, and even now, after baving withstood revolutions of men, shocks of earthquakes, and the grawing tooth of time, for nearly two thousand and five hundred years, are the admiration of the world. Until within two hundred years past the Parthenon was in a good state of preservation; but about that length of time ago, the Venetians haid siege to the city, and directed their batteries against this devoted part. Although it suffered much during this siege, yet its greatest injury was received on its being blown up in 1687 by a quantity of gun-powder, which had been placed there by the Turks. Again in the revolution of 1826 to 1827 the Acropolis was used as a fortress, and suffered from both parties. But notwithstanding all the revolutions of man, and nature too, for earthquakes have had their share in help ing to destroy; and notwithstanding twenty-five hundred years have rolled into eternity, there are yet remaining enough to astonish mankind of the present day at the perfection of the arts and ciences, the genius and talent that existed in

The most conspicuous as well as the most perfeet among the ruins is the Parthenon-a model of perfect architecture, and one which has been Napoleon erected in Paris, or partially erected, down for hearing on Monday next. was taken from the Parthenon, and which was afterwards changed to the Madeline Church; as D. F. Weymouth plff's att'y., David Noggle def'ts also the Temple of Fame, built by the late King atry; Judgment for plaintiff. Louis of Bavaria, to commemorate the names of the most illustrious and eminent men of Germany. The whole exterior with the frieze and cornice, and a portion of the roof yet remain. The building is not so large, being only some two hundred and thirty feet in length and upwards, by a little more than one hundred feet in breadth, but its great celebrity is owing to the perfection of its proportions, and the extreme tichness and gracefulness of its statuary. The marble columns that form a double collonade on all sides, are upwards of six feet in diameter and about forty feet highall of Pentellic marble. Both the eastern and western pediments contain the statuary which once adorned them, though many of the figures are mutilated. The subjects were of course myledicated, and that in the west referred to her contest with Neptune for the soil of Attica. According to ancient historians, the roof above the Having thus declared the party choice, the Arbitics contained a row of statuary all around the gas forthwith notifies the Delegates to Cincinnation building, larger than the size of life; and in one to "hear and obey":

That thousand Winners demand the Arbitics Contained a row of statuary all around the many friend of Senator Benton; would probably support Col. Fromout for the Presidency, and is decidedly anti-Douglas and anti-Pierce. Goddess herself, which, with one exception, that of Jupiter at Olympia, was the most celebrated by Paidias. The height of the former was forty feet, placed on a pedesatt of twenty feet in height It was clothed in the xgis, and a flowing robe reached to the feet. At the feet lay a shield, bearing on one side a representation of the battle of the Athenians and Amazons, and on the other the war of the Gods and giants. On the sanchels was carred the contest between the Centaurs and Lapithae. It is not a little singular, that the Athenians, some 500 years before the birth of Christ, dedicated a temple to the Virgine for the statue of antiquity. Both of these works were lowing item:

Christ, dedicated a temple to the Virgine for the iteral translation of the Greek name of the buildng/ Athenai Parthenos) means Temple of the Vital foresight, saw that the worship of idols was not only profane, but foolish, and inculcated in all his acts and writings the principles of an actual practical religion, and utterly ignored every thing that approached the idolatrous worship of the ancients. So far has this doctrine been adhered to, that in all the churches and public edifices in Constantinople and in all other Mahometan cities, there is not a statue of any kind to be found. This is to be regretted, particularly so far as ma ny public buildings are converned, for there seem ed to be only one thing wanting, and that was statuary, to grace and adorn the Sultan's palaces along the Bosphorus. The prophet never intended that the prohibition should extend to the erection of suitable memorials to the great and good man of anation, but his zealous followers have so construed it, and centuries will pass before their minds The other buildings of the Acropolis, tho' less entire than the Parthenon, are equally known for their splendor and magnificence; but it is beyond my limits to describe them as they now uppear, or even give a brief description of them when they were the admiration and wonder of the world. They history of Greece by Pausanias, and a modern work called the Topography of the city pay the reader for a perusal. Those buildings are the Propylae, the temple of Victory, the noius and the Erectheum. These buildings must have once looked grand and imposing and been dear to the Athenians. The were then peopled as it were with everything loved and respected by them. Here were their alters for sacrifices, here their deities and here the Statues of the great men of Athens whose memory, virtue and learning they leved to admire. Here were groups of statuary representing the battle of Marathon and the destruction of the Gaula by Attalus king of Pergamos, Perseus slaying Medusa, and Mercury of the three Graces, a brazen figunlucky but impudent Marsyas, and a statue of the Earth imploring showers from Jupiter and many others. Here, too might be seen the Equestrian Statues of Gryllus and Didorus sons of Zenare of the Trojan horse, Minerva punishing the piles of rubbish in the Acropolis. For the last few years government has prohibited the carry-there to show it to strangers and to guard it. The temple of Jupiter has only a few of its lofty columns left, standing alone on the plain, the great works of antiquity, the roof, colonades | Depurture of the Connecticut Colony entablatures and cornice being almost perfect.pondence of the N. Y. Tribune.

It owes its preservation to the fact of being converted into a church during the middle agea .-It was built 469 years before Christ. The sculptural designs in relact on one side of the apsis represent ten of the labors of Hercules, while as if in contrast, the other represents a corresponding number of the labors of Theseus. Of the temple of the winds and the temple of Mars, I have ple of the winds and the temple of Mars, I have not room to speak. They were not far from the Acropolis, While standing near the latter and facing the Acropolis, Paul addressed the Athennians, and this is the identical spot where the events mentioned in the 17th Chapter of the acts of the Apostles took place. In the case of J. B. Smith vs. Taylor, Pfleter and Schaub, for infringement of a patent, preliminary motion of Plaintiff's counsel was set down for hearing on Monday next.

John R. Hartshorn vs. Guy Stoughton, et. al. D. F. Weymouth plf's att'y., David Noggle def'ts att'y; Judgment for plaintiff.

At 10 o'clock the Colony prepared to leave the Hall, to take the boat for New York, and eff's thence proceed directly to Kansas.

The Elm City Guards and Croton Engine Company No. 1, [composed of freedom-loving sons of the Puritans) preceded by a band of music, escorted the Kansas Colony and their friends from the Hall to the steamboat landing. About four hundred of our citizens accompaned them to the steamboat. On the line of march several buildings and private dwellings were illuminated in honor of the occasion, and ladies assembled on balconies and in windows, and waved an adieu to the departing Colony, and cheered the escort that so kindly volunteered its services.

About severaly left on the steamboat last evening for Kansas, and quite a number of others will follow in about two weeks. A vancound of the control of the colony of the colony

The junior class in Yale College presented to Chas. B. Lines each, President of the Colony, a splendid rifle, richly mounted, having a silver plate, on which is inscribed "Ultima Ratio Liberarum"—the last resort of freeman.

Several hundred people waited at the steamboat landing to see the boat leave the wharf, and ware a last adieu to their departing friends. The boat was finely illuminated, and, as it left the wharf, lot d and long-continued cheers were given for our New-Hayan Colony, and for the "Free State of Kansas." The friends of freedom in Kansas will no doubt hail such a Colony as we have sent there as just what they need. A few such colonies from other northern cities would wrest Kansas from the Shave Power. Will they not send them on this Spring?

Both boats were now about three miles from the ship, one on each side of her course, and the captain, at once inferred that the man, if adant, must be between the boats and the ship, signalized the boats to return, in the hope of their finding the man, for he still believed him to be alive, as he was a young fellow of good pluck and an excellent swimmer. The weather boat, when about a mile from the ship, was seen to "stern-hard," as the whalers say, until her way was stopped, then three men reached over the bow, and dragged inboard their long-looked-for-ship-mate. All hands were on the alert, eveling them from the rigging, and when they saw what we have just described, sainted the bont's crew with three times three.

The man had been overboaad two hours and a half, and was so much exhausted that he bont's crew with three times three.

The man had been overboaad two hours and half, and was so much exhausted that he would alargerous, and both returned to Mr. Luther's saloon, where they had some wine together. In a short time, however, Capt. E. was taken with convulsions, and died in about fifteen minutes.—Chicago Tribune of yesterday.

A PRODUCT OF MAINAMON COUNTY.—We have before intimated that it was a County of good farming land, and that settlers were finding it out. Yesterday Mr. Barnard left at our office a specimen of as handsome wheat as can be seen anywhere, raised on his farm in the neighborhood of Big Bull Falls. There are some afteen other farms in his immediate neighborhood, making agriculture their sole business.

The above is not the only evidence of the spontaneity of this county; we have another and still more convincing proof. A Mrs. Goff, restiding in the neighborhood of Wausau, gave birth, on the 2d day of the present month, to

It is compected with Chicago by a good Plank Read, making one of the three for the control of the city. The house is new, and furnished in the best style, with accommodations for 100 (useus and patients. The building is beated throughout by stream, and supplied with an absardance of pure water. There is a large hall attached to one wing of the batisting, which will be used for gymeastic and callisticate encreases. There is also a bowling saloon, &c., &c. No palms will be supered by the Physician and Emperior tendendent to make it the best institution of the kind in the West. And we here extend a cardial invitation to all our old irlends and former patients, to trist the delightful spot and judge for themselves.

The Institution will be open for the reception of patients on Monday, the 24th limit.
